

Artist in Communities

Up to $20,000 for artistic residencies in community settings

About the Grant Program

Artists are integral to healthy communities. Their creative work is a societal cornerstone that brings people together, builds community, and fosters social progress. Artists in Communities centralizes artists and their artistic processes as vehicles for community vitality through its support for sustained artistic residencies in community settings.

Projects should include one or more artists, in partnership with an arts or community organization or social institution. Locations may include, but are not limited to libraries, affordable housing sites, senior centers, hospitals, foster care facilities, parks, cultural centers, community halls, jails, and other public spaces.
