

JUMP StArts

Up to $50,000 for arts education projects for youth impacted by or at risk of being engaged in the justice system

About the Grant Program

JUMP StArts is rooted in the California Arts Council's commitment to ensuring that art is accessible to all Californians, including the young and vulnerable, specifically those who have been impacted by or are at elevated risk of being engaged in the justice system. These may be students who have been arrested, are on probation, or are incarcerated at a juvenile justice facility or at a court-appointed educational institution; these may also be youth who are living homeless, whose parent or guardian has been incarcerated, who are refugees, or who are pregnant or are parents themselves.

JUMP StArts supports high-quality arts education and artists-in-residence programs for these priority youth. Activities may take place in state- or county-operated correctional facilities, or in classroom, after-school, and/or social service settings.

Organizations may apply for and receive funding from two project grant strands simultaneously: State Facilities and County/Community Facilities.
