

Local Impact

Up to $20,000 for arts projects in California's historically marginalized communities

About the Grant Program

The California Arts Council values diversity as a source of vibrancy and supports increasing access to the arts for Californians in communities where the arts are scarce, nonexistent, or vulnerable. Local Impact supports community-driven arts projects for small and mid-sized arts organizations to foster equity, access, and opportunity in historically marginalized communities by centering the arts as a vehicle for building strong, healthy, vibrant, and resilient communities.

Historically marginalized communities may include but are not limited to: African and African American, Arab, Asian and Asian American, Latinx, Middle Eastern, Native American and Indigenous Californian, Pacific Islander; lesbian, gay, bisexual, queer, transgender and gender-variant people; people with disabilities; women; low-income, rural, or immigrant and refugee communities.
